

JNZ NATIONAL TECHNICAL DIRECTOR PERSON SPECIFICATION

Management Capabilities

- 1 Proven strategic technical management and implementation skills.
- 2 Excellent project management skills.
- 3 Superior analytical, communication, influencing and planning skills
- 4 Able to identify key points and lines of logic in complex issues while retaining awareness of wider or longer term linkages.
- 5 Proven ability to provide supportive oversight to strategic planning and development of technical operations with responsibility to develop and implement technical systems and standards for Judo New Zealand (JNZ).
- 6 Knowledge / experience of technical systems and reporting.
- 7 High level technical qualifications and knowledge.

Relationship Management and Communication

- 1 An ability to communicate clearly and effectively with a wide range of people in all situations
- 2 An ability to form successful relationships with members, especially key technical personnel within JNZ.
- 3 An ability to consult with and influence technical relationships with key agencies

Personal Attributes

Ability to demonstrate the following professional skills, knowledge and personal attributes:

- 1 The NTD must have an in-depth knowledge of the technical requirements of JNZ and in particular, must be of sufficient grade to have demonstrated a high level of technical knowledge and skill.
- 2 A commitment to providing leadership and working cooperatively with others.
- 3 An ability to work constructively with groups of people to build a common purpose and achieve results.
- 4 Sets demanding goals, motivated by excellence and unwilling to accept mediocrity.
- 5 Demonstrate resilience by remaining focused and effective under changing demands and priorities.
- 6 Inspires enthusiasm and commitment through credibility and modeling self-motivation, high energy and drive.